The Stove with Many Options...

The Cosmo Series Has It All

Ten unique style variations make the Cosmo series one of the most versatile wood burning stoves in the Wittus collection. The Cosmo is a balanced combination of contemporary Danish design and measured energy efficiency. Specifically designed to burn at 81% capacity, the Cosmo boasts "clean, pure environment" in every stove.

The ten versions include:

Cosmo Pedestal	Cosmo 971	Cosmo 971 Soapstone	Cosmo 971 Sandstone	Cosmo 971 Special Soapstone	Cosmo 971 Special Sandstone	Cosmo 1147	Cosmo 1147 Soapstone	Cosmo 1147 Sandstone	Cosmo 1147 Classic

All Cosmo models utilize the same firebox that measures 15" w x 13" d x 17" h. The body of the Cosmo is available in black or gray steel with top or rear venting.

Winning design features include the sleek cast iron door with its large, curved tempered glass viewing window, a locking system with a uniquely hidden "finger top" control wheel, and the ash drawer cleverly tucked in behind the door; and for all models other than the Cosmo Pedestal, a steel door at the bottom opens to reveal a compartment for storage. The Cosmo is undeniably one of the most adaptable, cosmopolitan stoves that Wittus has to offer.

Here comes the COSMO!

Have you heard the news? The Cosmo series from Jydepejsen is on its way. What's so special about the Cosmo? This series is a versatile, well designed line of wood burning stoves from Denmark that will be replacing the Wood Burning Stoves: Trendline, Fineline, Athene, Zeus, Softline, Troja and Avanti. Ten unique style variations make the Cosmo series one of the most versatile wood burning stove series in the Wittus collection.

Distinct features of the Cosmo series include:

- New cast iron top & door: Cast iron is stronger and retains the heat better than steel
- Same door style for all models
- Larger curved glass viewing area
- Same firebox dimensions: 15"w x 13"d x 17"h
- New locking system: With "finger top" control wheel for fine tuning heat adjustment
- Competitive pricing
- New steel base on the Cosmo Pedestal: Stable and well balanced
- Clean, simple lines
- More substantial stove body: A more substantial body designed for stability and presence.
- Cool handle: Conveniently positioned below and away from the firebox
- DuplicAir System: For controlled stove lighting and combustion
- Air wash system: Keeps the window clean and clear
- Cladding selections: Steel, soapstone & sandstone
- Top or rear venting

Having variety at your fingertips is essential for promoting your business. One stove with many style choices is a sure bet. The Cosmo has it all.
