SÓLAS: Skillfully Designed, Expertly Manufactured & Built to Last

Innovative Design

Through innovation and with a focus on quality, SÓLAS has become an industry leader in gas fireplace technology. Our line of highly-efficient products offers all of the features in demand by today's design-driven homeowner.

Industry Experience

With more than 40 years of experience, our team brings industry know-how to the gas fireplace market. Our passion, expertise and knowledge propels us forward to create products that are built to last.

Finest Quality

Our products are made to the highest standard without compromise. We design and manufacture products that are built to last by using heavier gauge materials, fully-welded fireboxes and state-of-the-art gas control systems.

Made With Pride In The USA

All SÓLAS products are proudly designed and manufactured in the USA. With a core focus on research and development – we are driven to bring the best solutions and quality innovations to market.

Ease of Installation & Service

We engineer our products with installation and service in mind. Always striving to improve, SÓLAS products provide unique solutions for the most challenging installations.

Our Promise

SÓLAS is recognized as a manufacturer of high quality products. Every fireplace is designed, tested and approved to the latest ANSI and CSA standards for use in North America and backed with a limited lifetime warranty.
